CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. Any bid which is merely a nominal or fractional advance may be rejected by the auctioneer, if, in his judgment, such bid would be likely to affect the sale injuriously.

2. The highest bidder shall be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the auctioneer shall either decide the same or put up for re-sale the lot so in dispute.

3. Payment shall be made of all or such part of the purchase money as may be required, and the names and addresses of the purchasers shall be given immediately on the sale of every lot, in default of which the lot so purchased shall be immediately put up again and re-sold.

Payment of that part of the purchase money not made at the time of sale shall be made within ten days thereafter, in default of which the undersigned may either continue to hold the lots at the risk of the purchaser and take such action as may be necessary for the enforcement of the sale, or may at public or private sale, and without other than this notice, re-sell the lots for the benefit of such purchaser, and the deficiency (if any) arising from such re-sale shall be a charge against such purchaser.

4. Delivery of any purchase will be made only upon payment of the total amount due for all purchases at the sale.

Deliveries will be made on sales days between the hours of 9 A. M. and 1 P. M., and on other days—except holidays—between the hours of 9 A. M. and 5 P. M.

Delivery of any purchase will be made only at the American Art Galleries, or other place of sale, as the case may be, and only on presenting the bill of purchase.

Delivery may be made, at the discretion of the Association, of any purchase during the session of the sale at which it was sold.

5. Shipping, boxing or wrapping of purchases is a business in which the Association is in no wise engaged, and will not be performed by the Association for purchasers. The Association will, however, afford to purchasers every facility for employing at current and reasonable rates carriers and packers; doing so, however, without any assumption of responsibility on its part for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.

6. Storage of any purchase shall be at the sole risk of the purchaser. Title passes upon the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, and thereafter, while the Association will exercise due caution in caring for and delivering such purchase, it will not hold itself responsible if such purchase be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

Storage charges will be made upon all purchases not removed within ten days from the date of the sale thereof.

7. Guarantee is not made either by the owner or the Association of the correctness of the description, genuineness or authenticity of any lot, and no sale will be set aside on account of any incorrectness, error of cataloguing, or any imperfection not noted. Every lot is on public exhibition one or more days prior to its sale, after which it is sold "as is" and without recourse.

The Association exercises great care to catalogue every lot correctly, and will give consideration to the opinion of any trustworthy expert to the effect that any lot has been incorrectly catalogued, and, in its judgment, may either sell the lot as catalogued or make mention of the opinion of such expert, who thereby would become responsible for such damage as might result were his opinion without proper foundation.

Chinese white porcelain, painted in enamels and in underglaze rouge-de-fer with a rooster and hen and chickens in a formal garden.

3—PORCELAIN SNUFF BOTTLE

Ch'ien-Lung

Square, enameled in black on which a floral scroll is traced in green, punctuated by blossoms in aubergine. On obverse and reverse, leaf medallions reserved in white and painted with birds and flowers in enamel colors. Six-character mark of the reign.

4—IMPERIAL GLASS SNUFF BOTTLE

Flask shape. Painted in rich color on the inner side with an imposing figure augustly raising a wine cup; signed. Also on the inner side, an inscription entitled and signed involving forty characters in calligraphic writing finely executed.

First Afternoon

5

5—COMPOSITE SNUFF BOTTLE

Globular jar shaped, flattened somewhat. With gilt bronze foot and lip, and stopper, the body is decorated with cloisonné enameling; on the two faces with a phœnix and a butterfly within enameled medallions, and elsewhere with a chrysanthemum scroll laid within a ground of aventurine.

6—YELLOW AMBER SNUFF BOTTLE

Bi-convex with edges and shoulder flattened. Clouded and showing a softened lustre.

7—TWO SNUFF BOTTLES

A chocolate-colored oviform nut mounted in silver and having silver stopper; and a wooden oviform bottle carved on all sides with sages in a forest retreat.

8—TURQUOISE SNUFF BOTTLE

Flattened flask shape, carved in the turquoise matrix, which is finely veined in black.

9—GLASS JADE SNUFF BOTTLE

Flattened oviform, beautifully marked in light emerald tones; in imitation of fei-ts'ui jade; soft polish.

10—AGATE SNUFF BOTTLE

Flattened globular form, carved in low relief with the phœnix and peony.

11—GLASS SNUFF BOTTLE

Flask shape; colorless ground, with bas-relief carvings of flowers and butterflies in polychrome.

12—CAMEO GLASS SNUFF BOTTLE

Oviform, with dark vermillion reliefs of incense burners and vases on an azure ground.

13—CAMEO-GLASS SNUFF BOTTLE

Ovate, with relief carvings of immortals under pine trees and crossing the waves, in wine color on a ground "frosted" with minute interior air bubbles.

13

14—TWO SNUFF BOTTLES

Cameo-glass, one pear-shaped, one flask-shaped, with ruby panels, in the one case on a transparent colorless ground, in the other on a flaked or bubbled ground.

Height, 3 7/8 inches

242—SMALL CELADON VASE

Pear-shape with spreading foot and lip. Around the body a band of archaic dragon-scroll in cavo-rilievo, between conventional borders of lotus derivation; above, incised leaf-and-tongue and hatch borders. Brilliant brownish-green celadon glaze.

Height, 4 inches

Second and Last Afternoon

243—BLANC-DE-CHINE INCENSE BURNER

Shallow cauldron shape with solid scroll handles and three short outward-turning feet. Brilliant glaze of soft white, uniform in quality.

Diameter, 4 inches

244—WHITE BEAKER VASE

Ch'ien-lung

Slender, with narrow, retorted foot, and broadly flaring mouth, and a narrow mid-band in relief. Monochrome glaze of soft, moist white, with a variable surface broadly of the peau-d'orange nature.

Height, 5½ inches

245—FUCHIEN LIBATION CUP

Inverted helmet-shape, lying within arms of plum and magnolia trees, which form an openwork base, while blossoming branches in low relief embrace the sides. Monochrome glaze of rich cream-white.

Diameter, 4¾ inches

246—FUCHIEN RETICULATED PI-T'UNG

With solid bands at base and lip, the intermediate body is composed of a broad foliar scroll formed by excisions in the paste. Soft creamy-white luminous glaze.

Height, 4½ inches

247—CLAIR-DE-LUNE BOTTLE

Ch'ien-lung

Squat body raised on three conical feet, with slender tubular neck and bulbous lip. Brilliant monochrome glaze of soft clair-de-lune. Seal mark of Ch'ien-lung in underglaze blue beneath bottom.

Height, 5¾ inches

248—ROBIN'S-EGG SOUFFLÉ VASE

Ch'ien-lung

With expanded foot and short neck, broad mouth and flanged lip. Dense robin's-egg soufflé glaze, of unctuous lustre.

Height, 6¾ inches

249—PAIR FUCHIEN BOWLS

Ming

Ovoidal, molded in large petal lobes, the rim lightly flaring and given an oval contour. In relief on the exterior, butterflies and blossoming peonies, the latter springing from four bulbous feet which rest on a polyfoil base. Luminous creamy glaze which on one shows crackle in self-color and café-au-lait. (Both slightly damaged at rim and base.)

Diameter, 6¾ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

256—FUCHIEN STATUARY GROUP

The goddess of mercy enthroned, with cowl overhanging her high headdress, right hand held above her right knee and left hand concealed, right bare foot crossed over left knee and the other foot protruding from beneath her robe. On one arm of the throne a bundle of books and beneath the throne a dragon. At her foot a worshipful boy and a female attendant standing. Brilliant glaze of rich creamy white.

Height, 9 inches

(Illustrated)

257—FUCHIEN STATUETTE

K'ang-hsi

Kuan-yin seated on a mat, with right knee raised and both hands resting on it, one above the other, the left (upper) hand holding a scroll. She wears a tiara, and her hair, un-screened by cowl, is held by a jeweled pin. Brilliant glaze of soft and rich cream-white.

Height, 9 1/4 inches

(Illustrated)

258—FUCHIEN STATUETTE

Ming

Kuan-yin the divine hearer of prayers is seated high on a rock throne, hands held open and approaching one another above her knee. At her left rests a bundle of books. The cowl rests upon but reveals her headdress. She looks benignly downward. Brilliant white glaze of rich creamy quality.

Height, 12 inches

(Illustrated)

Second and Last Afternoon

259—CELADON VASE

Yung Chêng

Full-bodied pear-shape with low spreading foot, large neck and wide mouth. Modeled in relief beneath the glaze a three-clawed dragon among clouds, pursuing the symbolic jewel of power, which is applied in rose and green enamel outside the glaze. The glaze a fine grayish-green celadon of delicate note and soft lustre, showing a coarse sporadic crackle. Impressed seal mark of Yung Chêng under foot.

Height, 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ inches

260—BLANC-DE-CHINE DRAGON BOTTLE

Ch'ien-lung

Wide-spreading globular body on a bold foot, the broad shoulder tapering into a tubular neck ending in a lightly molded lip. Two handles in the form of sinuous archaic dragons moled in the round. Luminous and fine monochrome glaze of soft cream-white.

Height, 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches

261—CHÜN-YAO BOWL

Sung

Ovoidal with heavy unglazed foot. Luminous glaze of variable robin's-egg note, with orange-skin pittings, over a yellow glaze and crackled in different tones. On one side of interior a dripping splash of purple, blue and green. (Restoration at two opposite points of rim.)

Diameter, 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ inches

262—IMPERIAL YELLOW GALLIPOT

Ch'ien-lung

Finely executed incised decoration occupying the entire surface. Around the base, rolling waves of the sea and above these, five imperial five-clawed dragons after jewels of power among conventional clouds. Monochrome glaze of imperial yellow, softly lustrous. Incised mark: Ta Ch'ing Ch'ien-lung nien chih.

Height, 9 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches

263—FLAMBÉ JAR

Ch'ien-lung

Ovoid with short neck and round lip. Brilliant mirror-glaze of the transmutation furnace, presenting a rich display of purplish-blue and gray and white dripping cataracts over a purplish-red and sang-de-bœuf foundation.

Height, 9 $\frac{1}{8}$ inches

264—LANG-YAO BOWL

K'ang-hsi

Broadly flaring in slightly ovoidal contour from a bold foot. Fine hard paste sonorous porcelain, coated on both surfaces with a rich sang-de-bœuf glaze, which, leaving a colorless rim, deepens in its tones with the coagulating blood as it approaches the bottom. It is of peau-d'orange surface and brilliant but soft lustre.

Diameter, 9 inches

265—POWDER-BLUE ROSE JAR

K'ang-hsi

Oviform, with short, conical (unglazed) neck; carved teak-wood cap. Brilliant powder-blue glaze of rich quality, which retains impressions of a floral decoration and signed poem which the vase sometime carried in gold.

Height, 7½ inches

266—PEACOCK-BLUE BOTTLE-SHAPED VASE

Ch'ien-lung

Spherical with sloping shoulder, wide neck and flaring saucer-shaped lip, on a broad and deep foot molded at the base; two monster-head loop handles. Brilliant mottled glaze with fish-roe crackle in the variety of the turquoise glaze known as peacock-blue.

Height, 13½ inches

267—DOUBLE-GOURD VASE

Ch'ien-lung

Unusual in that the lip, after a well defined edge, is very slightly raised and then flattened so that the normal mouth is closed by a relief disc which is pierced by a small aperture at the centre. Turquoise glaze, truité, throughout, with the curious differentiation that the upper section is a pronounced turquoise-green and the lower an equally normal turquoise-blue. (Minute fissure between the glazes at the point of juncture.)

Height, 12¾ inches

268—TURQUOISE-BLUE VASE

Ch'ien-lung

Ovoidal body with molded foot, and wide neck flaring to a bulbous and short lip. Luminous turquoise-blue glaze with fish-roe crackle.

Height, 13 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches

269—PAIR CELADON BEAKER VASES

Ming

Heavy porcellanous stoneware coated with a brilliant glaze of pale sea-green, which in the one shows a slightly deeper note than in the other with a trend toward bluish, and in that one displays a giant crackle in café-au-lait. The decoration in both, essentially similar, consists of primitive floral motives boldly incised in the paste, with incidental borders.

Height, 12 inches

Second and Last Afternoon

270—LANG-YAO VASE

K'ang-hsi

Oviform with flaring foot, high and narrow shoulder, and short wide neck. Brilliant sang-de-bœuf glaze with orange-skin surface and characteristic crackle, in the richest hues of the liquid blood and the brownish phases of the hardening.

Height, 16½ inches

271—LANG-YAO VASE

K'ang-hsi

Large inverted pear-shape with sloping shoulder and short wide neck, and lightly flaring foot. Luminous glaze with finely pitted orange-skin surface and scarcely visible crackle, in the varied hues of the sang-de-bœuf family, including fluent red, darkening spots of coagulation, and peach-gray areas.

Height, 16 $\frac{7}{8}$ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

272—GRAND BOTTLE-SHAPED VASE

Globular with a deep and heavy foot, and tall incurvate neck, with simple moldings at the shoulder and the root of the neck. Invested with a clair-de-lune glaze brilliant and uniform in quality, in a delicate lavender tone. Seal mark in underglaze blue beneath the foot. Height, 19½ inches

273—LARGE WHITE VASE

K'ang-hsi

Globular body on a broad bell-shaped foot, with short and relatively slender neck and broad trumpet lip; moldings about neck, shoulder and underbody. Around the body a deep band of rich chrysanthemum scroll, finely incised. Luminous glaze of soft cream-white. (Slight repair at lip.)

Height, 15¼ inches

274—CELADON BEAKER-FORM VASE

K'ang-hsi

Both upper and lower sections—the entire body save a narrow molded band at the base of the neck—given to a dense and luxuriant, finely designed peony scroll, incised and modeled in the paste beneath a brilliant celadon glaze of pure and even, delicate grayish sea-green.

Height, 18 inches

275—CELADON VASE

Ch'ien-lung

Oviform with lightly flaring foot, high shoulder, and short wide neck with expanding lip. On the body an all-over decoration of rich lotus scroll with arabesque effects and on the neck detached plantain leaves, modeled in light relief, and on the shoulder a hatched border. Brilliant celadon glaze of delicate grayish sea-green of fine tone. Four-character mark of Ch'êng Hua (apocryphal).

Height, 10½ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

276—REMARKABLY FINE PAIR OF FU-LIONS

Ming

These guardians of the threshold have escaped damage and present a brilliant appearance and engaging coloring. Seated on their haunches, they are finely modeled, with relief and incised details, and clothed in a rich and very brilliant mottled glaze of turquoise-blue, with a boldly marked fish-roe crackle. (Slight spot on shoulder of one seems due to a kiln defect.)

Height, 13 inches

277—CELADON BEAKER-FORM VASE

Ming

Dense stone-weight porcelain. Body modeled in inverted pear-shape, with large trumpet neck. Both neck and body given to a brocaded decoration of primitive and indefinite forms within a latticed ground, that on the body interrupted by two medallions in floral motive, all incised in the paste. Brilliant glaze of celadon green with giant crackle. (Slight defect in glaze at lip.)

Height, 18 $\frac{5}{8}$ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

278—OLD JAPANESE POTTERY JAR

Ovoidal, with sharp shoulder broadly sloping to a short neck supporting an everted lip, from which two loop handles return to the shoulder. Brilliant splash glaze of Takkatori notes, with neutral tones of brown and green predominating, and heavy drippings.

Height, 12½ inches

BLUE AND WHITE PORCELAINS

279—THREE BLUE AND WHITE MINIATURE BOTTLES K'ang-hsi

Globular, gourd-shaped and square, with figure and floral decoration.

280—PAIR BLUE AND WHITE SEMI-EGGSHELL CUPS; ONE SAUCER K'ang-hsi

Cups bell-shape. Clear, musical, translucent, delicate white porcelain, with a luminous glaze of soft white, finely penciled in two tones of sapphire-blue with birds and flowers, landscapes and pavilions. (Slightest of nicks at rims.)

Diameter of saucer, 4¾ inches.

281—BLUE AND WHITE CYLINDRICAL ROUGE BOX Ch'ien-lung

On the box mountain and stream landscapes, on the cover a garden pavilion with two figures, in deep sapphire-blue and delicate wash.

282—SMALL BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR Ch'ien-lung

Ovoid, with a decoration of butterflies and a clump of growing garden flowers in dark blue.

Height, 3¾ inches

283—BLUE AND WHITE OVOID JAR

Mountain and stream decoration in two shades of brilliant blue, with a mounted traveler crossing a bridge followed by a man on foot, and a fisherman talking to a man in a pavilion. Mark, a blue leaf.

Height, 4¾ inches

284—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR K'ang-hsi

Penciled with household ornaments and emblems from the Eight Precious Things, in transparent sapphire-blue.

Height, 4¾ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

285—PAIR BLUE AND WHITE OVOID JARS Yung Chêng

With short neck and spreading lip. Each decorated with two Fu-lions glaring up at hawks, the lions on one jar having the right forefoot raised and those on the other jar the left forefoot raised. In mottled sapphire-blue on a cream and crackled ground.

Height, 5½ inches

286—BLUE AND WHITE DOUBLE-GOURD VASE K'ang-hsi

Painted with a bold and rich lotus scroll in transparent sapphire-blue on a ground of fine and brilliant white.

Height, 6¾ inches

287—PAIR BLUE AND WHITE ROSE JARS WITH ORIGINAL COVERS K'ang-hsi

Ovoid, the covers cap-shaped. Under a broad shoulder border of alternating large and small ju-i forms, in blue with scrolls in white reserve, a decoration of rock peonies, chrysanthemums and other floral forms, painted within four panels in two tones of sapphire-blue.

Height, 7 inches

288—BLUE AND WHITE OVO-CYLINDRICAL JAR K'ang-hsi

Rich and vigorous decoration in sapphire-blue of graduated tones, picturing a kylin on a rock in the midst of the sea disputing with a bird-dragon the possession of the whirling jewel of omnipotence.

Height, 6½ inches

289—BLUE AND WHITE BEAKER K'ang-hsi

Brilliant sapphire-blue decoration of conventional leaves of the ornamental banana, with ju-i scrolls in white reserve, springing from and pendent from a midband showing conventional floral medallions. Mark, a leaf within a double-ring.

Height, 7¾ inches

290—BLUE AND WHITE OVIFORM VASE WITH TRUNCATE NECK Yung Chêng

Light and delicate porcelain clothed in a cream-white glaze with broad diagonal crackle in café-au-lait, and painted in rich underglaze blue with an ox scratching its neck against the trunk of a gnarled pine tree. (Kiln crack at neck.)

Height, 8¾ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

291—RARE BLUE AND WHITE FLARING BOWL Yung Chêng

The exterior from foot to lip showing a relief decoration of rich and involved lotus scroll under a grayish creamy glaze, the interior given to an imperial dragon among conventional cloud scrolls all done in pale cobalt blue. Both surfaces with café-au-lait crackle. (Repair at one point in rim.)

Diameter, 9½ inches

292—BLUE AND WHITE HOOKAH VASE

A globular bottle with full neck and flanged lip, with an inverted cup-shaped bulb set at an angle on the shoulder and finished by a stunted spout. Decorated with Fu-lions and filleted spheres, and floral sprays. There is a Persian suggestion in the decoration, although the principal motives are Chinese; the execution seems strange for a Chinese hand. Attributed to the Ming dynasty.

Height, 7 inches

293—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR

K'ang-hsi

Floral decoration in sapphire-blue in four panels, between a lightly touched floral base border and a broad shoulder border of ju-i pattern with reserved scrolls. Mark, a blue double-ring. (Slight repair at lip.)

Height, 6½ inches

294—BLUE AND WHITE INVERTED PEAR-SHAPE VASE

Yung Chêng

High shoulder and short contracting neck. Conventional floral scroll in grayish-blue on a cream-white ground with café-au-lait crackle; vermiculate-scroll and petal-tip borders. Mark of Ch'êng Hua (apocryphal.)

Height, 9 inches

295—BLUE AND WHITE BEAKER VASE

Ch'ien-lung

All three sections given to a conventional chrysanthemum scroll in dark blue. Mark, a blue double-ring.

Height, 9½ inches

296—BLUE AND WHITE DOUBLE-GOURD BOTTLE

Ming

The globular section lightly melon-lobed, and given to a composite floral and emblematic decoration within panels outlined by a running ribbon-scroll. The decoration is repeated on the upper section.

Height, 12¾ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

297—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR

K'ang-hsi

Luminous glaze of fine soft white, with a decoration brilliantly painted in cobalt blue which deepens to sapphire accents, presenting a bold lotus scroll, the conventional blossoms embracing seed-pods; above, a conventional border. Mark, a blue artemisia leaf within a double-ring.

Height, 8½ inches

298—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR

K'ang-hsi

Finely executed decoration of a rich, elaborate and luxuriant peony scroll, the blossoms large; within it two of the feng-huang, the (phoenix) emblem of the Empress; all in cobalt blue showing sapphire quality, on a luminous soft white ground. Mark, a blue double ring.

Height, 8½ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

299—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR WITH ITS OWN ORIGINAL

K'ang-hsi

Brilliant blue ground of "cracking ice" supporting groups of plum blossoms in white reserve, interrupted by three large reserved quatrefoil medallions, two of them decorated with motives from the Hundred Antiques and the third with a kylin. Crenellated shoulder border. Cover decoration in conformity, with ju-i border added. The commonly called "hawthorn ginger jar," though the "hawthorn" are really the wild plum blossoms of China and the jars were designed for making presents of fine tea at the opening of the New Year. Mark, a blue double-ring.

Height, 9 inches

Second and Last Afternoon

300—BLUE AND WHITE GINGER JAR WITH ITS OWN ORIGINAL COVER

K'ang-hsi

Fine, heavy, resonant white porcelain. Rich blue glaze with the markings of disintegrating ice, and supporting white reserves of blossoms of the wild prunus (the so-called "hawthorn pattern"). This is interrupted by three reserved polyfoliate medallions painted with household ornaments and emblems—from the Hundred Antiques—and the shoulder bears a hatched border. Cover decoration to match. (Known as "ginger jar"; designed as a presentation tea jar at New Year.)

Height, 9 5/8 inches

301—BLUE AND WHITE TALL VASE

- K'ang-hsi

Ovoidal, with sloping shoulders, short wide neck and flaring lip. On the body a Court scene with Emperor and Empress enthroned before a table holding books and ornaments, attendants at their backs and nobles of the entourage standing about, and two entertainers on a mat in the foreground. Exterior to this a horseman over whom an attendant holds a canopy. Altogether twenty-seven figures. On the neck a waterside landscape with more figures.

Height, 20 5/8 inches

302—PAIR TALL BLUE AND WHITE VASES WITH THEIR OWN ORIGINAL COVERS

K'ang-hsi

Forming with the three bottles of the preceding lot a garniture of five pieces. Their decoration while differing in detail from that of the bottles is in the same motives, and brilliantly executed. Mark, an artemisia leaf. (One cover slightly chipped, the other repaired.)

Height, 17 3/4 inches

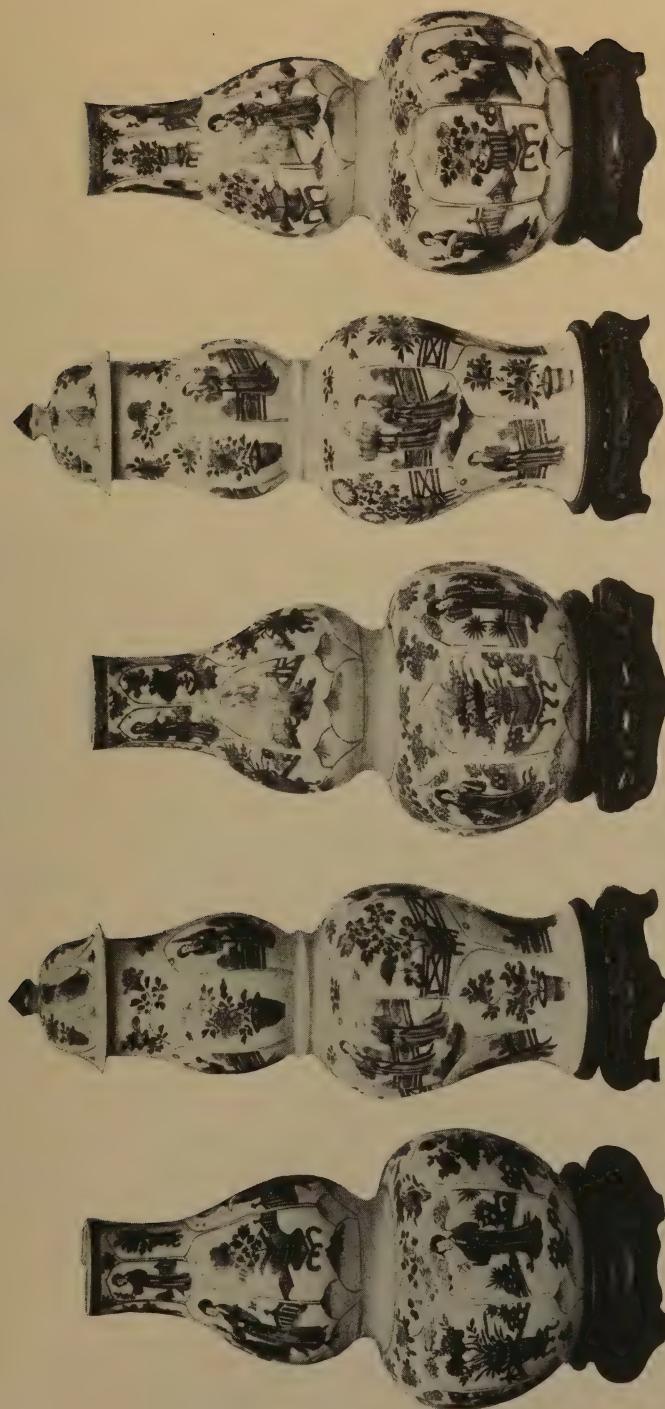

303—BLUE AND WHITE GARNITURE

K'ang-hsi

Three tall double-gourd bottle-form vases, of the same style, shape and decoration. Two of these form an original pair, in heavy porcelain, marked under the foot of each with an artemisia leaf within a double-ring in blue; of these, one is repaired at the lip, one restored at the lip. The third vase is intact; it is of slightly lighter porcelain and a quarter-inch shorter than the others, and without mark. The decoration, in brilliant sapphire-blue, presents Chinese ladies in flowing robes—"Long Elizas"—alternately with jardinières of various plants, in three tiers of molded panels, besides border designs.

Heights, 15½ inches and 15¼ inches

(Illustrated)

No. 303—BLUE AND WHITE GARNITURE

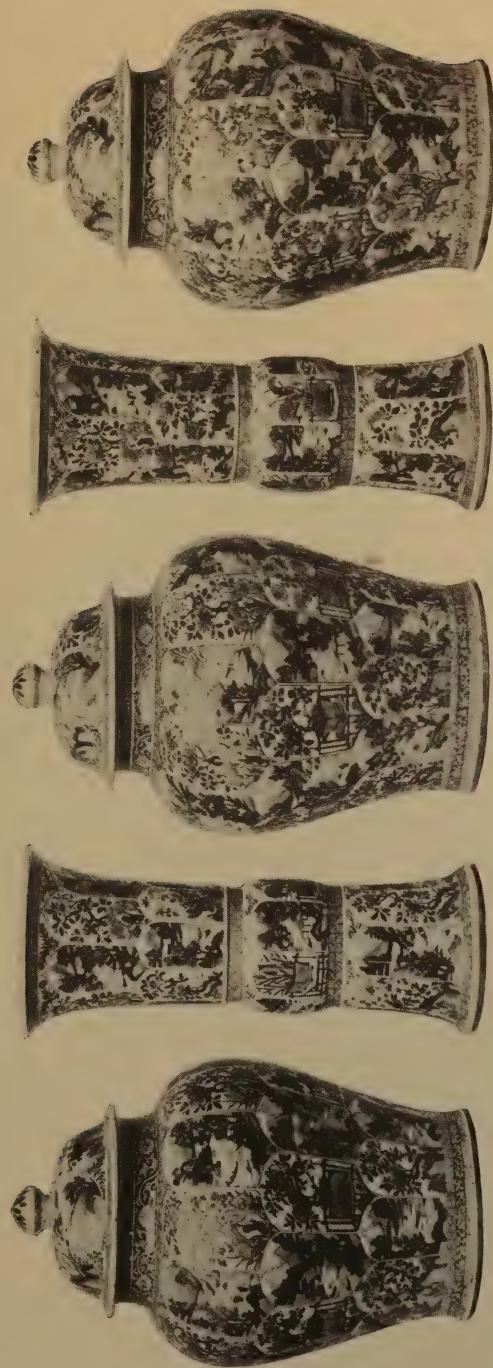

304—GRAND BLUE AND WHITE GARNITURE OF FIVE PIECES
K'ang-hsi

Consisting of three temple jars with original covers, and two tall beaker-shaped vases. Compartmental decoration, the various panels or compartments modeled in light relief, in series, and penciled in rich and fine sapphire-blue varying in tone from glowing depths to transparent wash, with landscapes, flowers and figures. On the jars, three tiers of the panels, with another tier on the covers, and on the beakers four tiers. Each jar has six borders, and the covers have two borders each, and the beakers have six borders each including two on the upper side of the lip. Mark on the beakers, a blue leaf within a blue double-ring. (Glaze at beaker lips slightly chipped; one jar repaired at neck.)

Height of beakers and one jar, 21½ inches; of other jars, 22⅛ and 22⅓ inches.

Exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Second and Last Afternoon

330—FAMILLE-VERTE BEAKER

K'ang-hsi

Lively decoration in varied enamel colors and underglaze red on a ground of soft and luminous white—tree peonies and chrysanthemums, floral sprays, and florets blown into the air among butterflies and birds on the wing, a phœnix on a rock, all carefully executed. Three red borders between blue rings.

Height, 15 inches

(Illustrated)

331—LONGEVITY VASE

Yung Ch'eng

Ovoid body springing from a deep and bell-shaped foot, lightly rounded shoulder and wide hour-glass neck, with an upright and molded lip. On the neck, facing a pine tree growing near a rock, Shou-lao, the god of longevity, appears with his long staff, accompanied by an attendant bearing a bundle of scrolls, and by a stag, one of his emblems, which holds another emblem of long life, the sacred fungus, in its mouth. On the body of the vase, near another pine tree and rock—the pine also an emblem of long life—are four “Graceful Ladies,” carrying respectively a branch of the fungus, peaches of immortality, a scroll and a basket of flowers. In six enamel colors and a delicate copper-red on a soft-white ground.

Height, 15½ inches

332—FAMILLE-VERTE BEAKER

K'ang-hsi

Dense, heavy and resonant porcelain, with a mirror glaze of soft white, and carrying a brilliant display of ornamentation in famille-verte enamels enriched and enlivened by an extensive use of soft and fine underglaze copper-red. The decoration is in the phœnix-and-peony motive, with landscape, and with smaller birds and butterflies on the wing. Mark, a blue double-ring.

Height, 18 inches

Second and Last Afternoon

333—TEMPLE JAR WITH ITS OWN ORIGINAL MANDARIN COVER
Yung Chêng

Inverted pear shape, with elaborate and highly colorful ornamentation. Body ground a lustrous black enamel, threaded by foliar scrolls reserved in underglaze emerald-green with black veinings, in chrysanthemum design, with numerous blooms appearing in various enamels. This decoration is interrupted by fan and scroll shaped reserves in brilliant white, adorned with flowers and belligerent roosters in polychrome enamels. Three borders. Cover decoration in accord.

Height, 16½ inches

MANDARIN COVER

334—GRAND TEMPLE JAR WITH ORIGINAL COVER Ming

Inverted pear shape, the cover hat shaped. White glaze of soft lustre, with orange-skin surface of minute markings. Brilliant polychrome decoration in underglaze and overglaze colors, picturing a seaside garden where an important lady of the Court, well attended, is being served with wine and other refreshments. Altogether nine ladies appear, besides male attendants. Around the neck a floral border.

Height, 18½ inches

Second and Last Afternoon

335—OVOID JAR

Polychrome decoration in low tones in a band and six borders, the band of yellowish ground interrupted by three polyfoliate medallions enclosing phoenixes.

Height, 16 inches

336—OVOID JARDINIÈRE IN NANKING WARE

Polychrome enamel decoration embellished with gold, in a border and four panels, two presenting birds and flowers, and two figures of non-Chinese features, characterized by nasal prominence, in pavilions and on terraces.

Height, 13½ inches

337—DECORATED GARDEN SEAT IN NANKING WARE

Barrel-shape, studded with bosses and pierced with "cash" medallions. Flamboyant decoration in polychrome enamels and gold, in numerous compartments, some enclosing flowers and birds, others groups of figures representing either legendary episodes of theatrical scenes. The figures have the same prominent noses as those pictured in the jardinière preceding. Possibly a legendary echo of ancient Tartar conquest tales.

Height, 18½ inches

338—PAIR FUNERARY URNS

Sung

Body, which occupies about one-half the length of the jar, ovoidal and slender, on a bold foot, and finishing in a lightly everted lip. About this a wide cylindrical neck, ending in an upright lip above a flange formed of a festooned leaf. An archaic dragon in relief coils about the neck, a disc (representing the traditional jewel) is also modeled in relief there, and in addition there is on one vase a leaf and on the other two leaves, all in relief. Standing on the lip of the jar body, a circle of robed statuettes surrounds the neck, the circle numbering ten figures on one vase and eleven on the other. Gray glaze of soft lustre.

Heights, 17¼ and 17½ inches

Exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Second and Last Afternoon

339—FUNERARY URN

Sung

Slender body ovoidal and plain, with a bold foot, the shoulder supporting a festooned leaf which encircles it and appears as a bold relief border; above this, both shoulder and neck present a succession of channelled rings encircling them. On the shoulder a duck and a lion in relief (latter's head missing), and about the neck a dragon in relief. Three ear-loop handles. Glaze of soft creamy grayish-white, with crackle.

Height, 15 $\frac{3}{8}$ inches

Exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

340—PALACE JAR WITH ITS OWN ORIGINAL COVER Yung Chêng

Tree peonies and magnolias in resplendent blossom, with iris and bush bamboo below, a gaily colored phœnix singing on a rock and a sombre companion bird looking up from a lower rock, all richly painted in enamels of the rose-verte family on a luminous soft white ground. On shoulder a ju-i border, which is repeated on the cover.

Height, 24 $\frac{1}{2}$ inches
